Pierce Joint Union High School Arbuckle, California

Graduation from college.

Mr. English at the Senior Farewell, 1964.

Mr. English with wife and three daughters.

dedication

To Mr. A. H. English, principal of Pierce for fourteen years, we dedicate this book.

Mr. English is a native Californian and completed his high school education in Nevada City High School near Grass Valley. From high school he went on to the University of California and graduated from there in 1925. He worked for the government for a year and then returned to U.C. to obtain his degree in agriculture in 1927.

His first teaching job was at Princeton High School as an agricultural teacher; within ten years he was promoted to the office of principal (1937). He stayed there until 1951 and then came to Arbuckle to live and be principal of Pierce High School, and so has been here ever since.

Mr. English is married to the former Kathryn Spears of Princeton. They have three daughters, Anne, Jacqueline, and Nancy, who all are married and have children of their own.

Mr. English, this dedication to you is in honor of your dedication to us. We hope that you will value it as a monument to your unswerving devotion to this school, this community, and these students!

MR. A. H. ENGLISH, PRINCIPAL

principal's message

To the Seniors:

To the faculty members and student leaders has been delegated the job of educating you in subject matter, in manners, in morals. Increasingly our nation needs good citizens whose high ideals and responsible actions will keep our nation from being led toward false goals. The development of such citizens is our aim, inside and outside the formal classroom. Democratic participation in student body affairs – elections, student council, athletic events, and others – are all evidences of good learning experiences. Your governing board and I aim to develop citizenship all day, every day. Our best wishes go with the good citizens of the Class of 1965.

Nancy Grussenmeyer Senior Class History

Trembling with anticipation and excitement we, 75 strong, found the first day at Pierce High to be a rat race. Classrooms seemed to be everywhere except where they should be. Then the girls went through an embarrassing Girls' League Initiation. The boys, except the FFA members, didn't have a formal initiation but they got the usual heckling from upperclassmen. Slave Day and other memorable events followed. "Harvest Moon" was the theme of the combination Freshmen-Sophomore Dance for which an orchestra was hired.

As a class of 61 eager students, we started our sophomore year with another combination Freshmen-Sophomore Dance. We'll never forget dissecting the smelly frogs, stuffing chicken wire with toilet paper, or choosing the class ring that would set us apart from every other class.

Last year we gave the annual Senior Farewell and enjoyed being honored at the Junior Prom. Later many of us spent hours on the Junior Play entitled "Susie the Siren". At the end of the year, elections were spirited by juniors who were ready to occupy the vacancies left by graduating

Of course we'll never forget the events of our senior year-baccalaureate, graduation exercises, the work put into a Junior Prom, the attempts to put on a Macbeth presentation.

We, 51 graduating seniors, leave behind us the echoing hall of Pierce High, full of memories. As we walk that hall for the last time as students, we remember four wonderful years. Past the classrooms we wander recalling the agony of homework, the familiar phrases of teachers, the busy noises of a classroom at work, the hush of a room during an exam, and the feeling of accomplishment gained through learning.

MOST POPULAR Pat Miller and Bob Martinez

MOST ATHLETIC Kathy Strong and Rich Hamilton

MOST TALENTED Linda Hill and Frank Norris

Beginning...

Ron Girtman, Rebecca Gonzales, Jackie Gross, Gerald Gustafson, Rich Hamilton, Linda Henderson, Linda Hill, Bonnie Hockensmith.

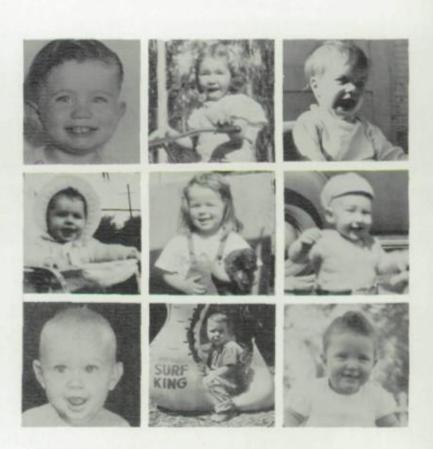

Don Howe, Christy Kalfsbeek, Joe Kalfsbeek,

Kenneth Kessler, Eugene Kitts, Jim Kley, Bob Martinez, Pat McAravy, Bonnie McCullough, Pat Miller, Lorraine Myers, Gilbert Ramos, John Rominger, Bill Schader, Jim Scheimer.

- I, Mickey Alexander, being of sound mind, will all my athletic talents and what few brains I have to my brother who could use both. Also, my good nature and act for getting along with the girls.
- I, Ruth Bertrand, will my small (?) feet and gracefulness to anyone who wants to be a ballet dancer. But, I have a feeling, their success would be limited.
- I, Ronna Bingaman, will my athletic ability to my P.E. teacher, Mrs. Mathews, and my grades to my counselor, Mrs. Grussenmeyer.
- I, Elaine Bouska, will to Carol Clark part-time use of my name, since people are always getting us mixed up anyhow.
- I, Ruth Buckingham, will to Laura Carrion my small (???) feet. Now, when she shops for shoes, she can wear the boxes home instead.
- I, Gene Caldwell, will if I can get away with it.
- I, Richard Carrion, being of sound mind, will to Don Goodman my wonderful shoulder pads, so that he will be able to throw good blocks as I did.
- I, Charles Conness, will, yeah, I will; if anybody will, I will.
- I, Robert Cross, will my ability to avoid acquaintances with girls to Herbie Myers, so he will stay out of trouble his senior year, and my ability to play the guitar to Tom Goodman.
- I, Clara Dennis, will to Barbara Deuel my bleached hair, as it'll probably fall out anyway; to Shirley Deuel my shape (she says she needs it); to Linda Schantz my lonely little dimple; to Kathy Murillo my ability to think of crazy topics to talk about in study hall to keep from studying.
- I, Linda Dewees, will to Barb Rominger my unfailing ability to remain mysterious and secretive about my private life.
- I, Lenie Duarte, will to Laura Carrion my ability to over-come my enormous height problem, and to Sue Fosset my ability to stick to my "get skinny" diets which I'll start tomorrow.
- I, Bob Erdman, being of sound mind and strong body, do will and bequeath the following: To Knute Kalfsbeek my ability to have fun on the stairs in the hall, and to Red all of my athletic abilities.
- I, Larry Farmer, will--you know I will.
- I, Ron Girtman, will that some day I will.
- I, Rebecca Gonzales, will leave my books to my younger brothers and sisters, and hope they study them.
- I, Jackie Gross, will to Coach LeMaster my willing and able little brothers (Tom and Jerry) for his future champion football team.
- I, Gerald Gustafson, will to Clyde Cooper all my late slips, for first period class.
- I, Rich Hamilton, will if you let me.
- I, Linda Henderson, will to any girl who likes a challenge, my old gym basket (at the top) in the hopes they can get the darn thing in and out without using a crowbar.
- I, Linda Hill, will my jokes to Sue Fosset in hopes that she won't forget all the punch lines like I do.
- I, Bonnie Hockensmith, will to Patty Arcand my ability to keep going, no matter what happens (you know what I mean).
- I, Don Howe, being of sound Republican mind and body, do hereby will to Coach Gregg LeMaster the number two place, to be filled promptly by someone else.
- I, Paul Huerta, will my silver dollar to Jim Kasza, because he lost it to me in the first place, many years ago-flipping.
- I, Christy Kalfsbeek, do hereby will to Terry Kalfsbeek the key to my Yamaha; I do this in hopes that she will learn to keep it out of the neighbor's shrubs.
- I, Joe Kalfsbeek, will to A.H.E. my ability to take gas.
- I, Eugene Kitts, will to Dick Howe my scholarly and athletic ability, hoping he can out do me, since his brother Don, never did.
- I, James Kley, will to two poor souls, whom I leave behind in this miserable place, my two sets of keys in hopes that both will be lost while they are fighting over which one will get to drive the monster at that particular time.
- I, Bob Martinez, will to Ron Dixon my brother in hopes that he will use him to good advantage.
- I, Pat McAravy, will if I get the chance.
- I, Bonnie McCullough, will to Becky McCullough and Sharon Rossi two good seats on the bus.
- I, Pat Miller, will to Herbie Myers the ability to turn as scarlet red as I do.
- I, Lorraine Myers, will to Barbara Rominger my striking ability to climb barbed wire fences.
- I, Frank Norris, will my drum set to the next drummer of the Jades.
- I, Gilbert Ramos, being of ill mind and battered body, will to Herbie Myers my great football ability.
- I, John Rominger, will my ability to do jumping jacks to Gene Hardy with the hope that he may some day impress Coach LeMaster as much as I have tried to.
- I, Bill Schader, will to Ed Divelbiss my locker 187, so that next year he will have a locker of his own.
- I, Don Schantz, being of sound mind, will my athletic ability to my brother, and my knowledge of Spanish to Maria Ramos.
- I, Jim Scheimer, will to any future big dumb tackle my ability to take all the gripes Coach LeMaster has.
- I, Daryl Scofield, will to Mark Gustafson my favorite seat in the board room in hopes he will not use it as much as I did.
- I, Connie Scroggins, will to Belinda Bryant my ability to unlock doors, in hopes there is always a crack to slip the key under to the locked-in occupant.
- I, Kathy Strong, will cherish these past four happy years for the rest of my life, and have nothing to leave to anyone but memories.
- I, Connie Vawter, will to John Haynes my ability to ALWAYS drive slow, but always get caught driving fast in hopes that he gets caught driving fast more times than I did.
- I, Carolyn Walker, will my pair of Levis to Cherie West so she can climb over the fences on our Ag. Science trips.
- I, Steve Weaver, will to anyone who wants it, nothing, because I have nothing that anyone wants.
- I, Lana (West) Hoffman, will my ability to yell so loud at a game that I nearly pass out, to any upcoming cheerleader.
- I, Lynda West, will to Sylvia Sherer a set of training wheels for her bicycle in hopes that she won't skin her knees quite so often.
- I, Billy Joe White, will my hairy belly button to Herbie Myers, because he needs it.
- I, Smokey Wilkins, will if you will.

Junior Class history

In the spring of 1962, fifty-five scared little rabbits entered the hallowed halls of Pierce. The rabbits went through the usual indoctrination process and started to adjust to high school life. In our first year we staged a successful Sophomore Return and took an active part in Pierce's social life.

After our year of peasantry we became guides, showing the incoming freshmen the ropes. As if we had been doing it all our lives, we '66ers took on the added responsibilities and did our share in running Pierce.

Now we have progressed to be juniors and are the understudies to lordly seniors. After a long wait the scared rabbits are anticipating becoming bold bears and having the run of the school as seniors.

We entered the halls of Pierce for the first time in September of 1962. To lead us through a year of trials, we elected Tim Schirber-President, Jim Strong-Vice President, Linda Dixon-Secretary, Barbara Rominger-Treasurer, and Sylvia Sherer-Representative. We got a start on our treasury with "Slave Day", a smashing success. We also gave the "Sophomore Return." Our other activities included selling rings at the "Sadie Hawkins Dance" and decorating for Baccalaureate.

Returning this year as "Superior Sophomores", we dominated the scene of games and rallies with our tremendous yelling ability. We supported the new Frosh class by spending much on "Slave Day." Our greatest contribution was the introduction of the "Jades" at the Frosh Reception. We also decorated for Graduation. We will take even greater strides and make even more important marks in the halls of ol' PJUHS as we enter the world of upper classmen.

freshman Class history

On September 1, 1963, 52 bewildered Freshmen entered the doors of Pierce High School. As the first bell rang, we assembled in the auditorium, where we were to be introduced to the Student Body officers and the faculty by the Student Body President, John Rominger.

After the second week of school, when we had the routine of high school life well imprinted in our minds, we assembled for the second time as a class for the purpose of electing our class officers.

On Slave Day we were sold to the upperclassmen and started our class treasury with a grand total of $211.35.

The Freshman Reception and the Sophomore Return were combined into one dance which we, with a little help from the sophomores, gave in fine style.

Our remaining three years at Pierce will be spent with hopes for the future and a longing for learning. We can only say, "We'll do our best."

COACH OF THE YEAR, GREGG LEMASTER

Whether or not it is possible to carry a winning tradition from one school to another is something scientists have not yet discovered, but it must be said that Coach Gregg
LeMaster makes it seem more than possible.

This year he was elected Coach of the Year for the Sacramento Valley League, and rightly so with the Pierce "Bears" taking the championship title. It cannot be said that the title wasn't fought for because it was not a season that allowed one team to run through every other team in the league. There were definitely games that required the stamina of a good team and the skill of a better-than-average coach. This isn't the first title Pierce has won under Coach LeMaster, and as everyone will acknowledge, it surely won't be the last.

So congratulations, Coach, and to the team that only you could have developed.

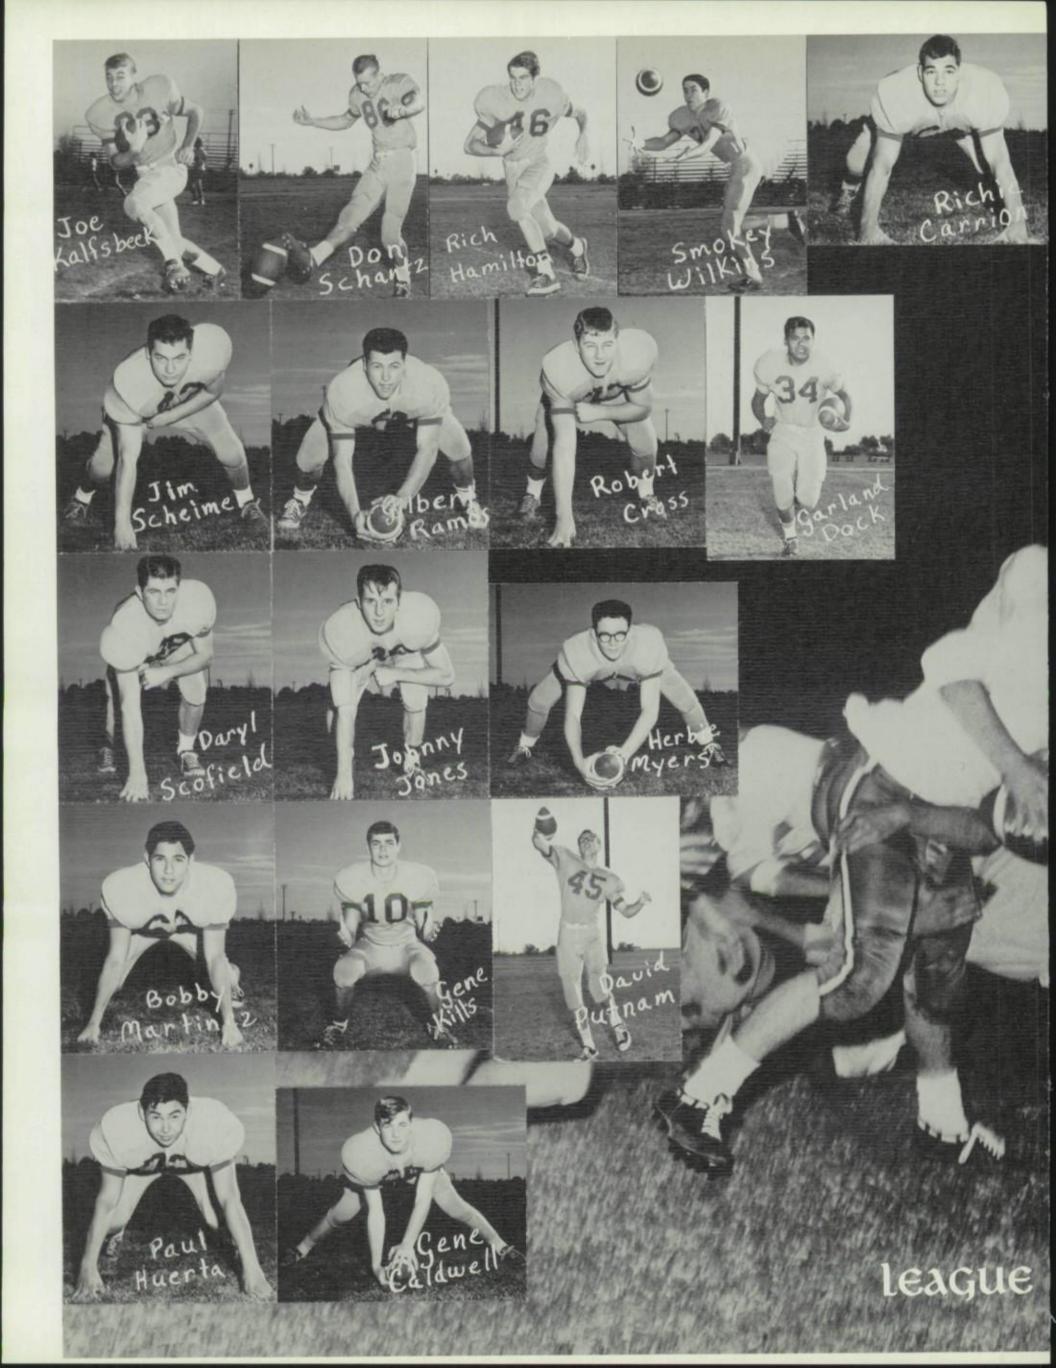

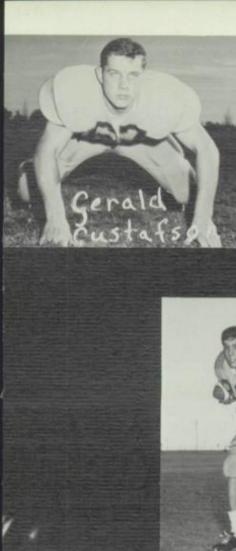

ASSISTANT COACH, ED MARTINEZ

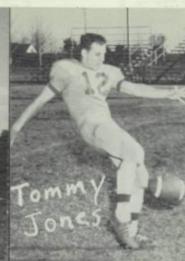

Another valuable member of the coaching squad is Ed Martinez, who acts as assistant coach for the varsity football squad.

Mr. Martinez most certainly has reason to be proud, and we hope he will continue with the great work he is doing.

The office of Student Body President has confronted me with many responsibilities; it has also been very rewarding in its satisfactions and its opportunities to work with people. As a leader of the school, I have endeavored to execute the duties of my office in the best interests of the student body and the school. I would like to sincerely thank Mr. English, Mr. Walker, and particularly the members of the Student Council for the fine advice and assistance they gave to me.

To next year's Student Body President I offer my congratulations and my best wishes with the hope that he and his administration will try as hard as we have to serve our school.

EDITORS' MESSAGE

Needless to say, we have devoted a great deal of time and effort towards giving the Student Body one of the most unusual yearbooks ever.

So, all that's left to do now is thank our staff and Mr. Denhardt for their help and wish Ron Dixon the best of luck on next year's Piercer.

Two classes, an advanced group and a beginning one, meeting at the same hour to study journalism, first period, puts out the biweekly school paper "The Oracle".

Established in 1923 the paper has undergone a few changes in format. Originally all stories were one column, written straight across the pages. Later two columns and "covers" were added. Now, however, the "covers" have been abandoned, and three columns and both sides of the paper are used.

Under the advisorship of Mrs. Louise Jackson, and Mrs. Helen Young, the Oracle staff has been awarded a first place the last two years in the division of mimeographed papers, by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association of Columbia University.

Again this year the staff will submit their papers from Easter until December 10, 1964 for judging in March or early April.

Out of a 1,000 possible points for first place in 1963, the Oracle won 860, and in 1964, again winning first place with 892.

The Oracle won its first place ratings on the basis of the following good points: the news of the school is well covered with attention given to the curricular as well as the extra-curricular, sports, news coverage, JV and girls' sports as well as Varsity. The articles are commended for having good leads.
